LETTER

Assistant Commissioner for Patents
Washington, D.C. 20231
Box: Office of Petitions

Fax Number: (703) 308-6916

Sir:

This is in confirmation of the undersigned attorney's telephone discussion today, with a Clerk of the Office of Petitions.

The Clerk graciously assisted the undersigned attorney and was able to explain that in Serial No. 08/250,770, Applicant's Petition had been granted subsequent to the 13th of May 2002. Applicant's undersigned attorney has never received any correspondence from the office in this application subsequent to the receipt on the 13th of May 2002, Paper No. 37.

Accordingly, the Commissioner is respectfully requested to immediately notify the Postal Inspection Service, United States Postal Service, that correspondence originating with the United States Patent & Trademark Office is, in repeated instances, not being delivered to the recipient, despite the fact that the correspondence is correctly addressed.

The Commissioner is also requested to confirm to Applicant's undersigned attorney, that the Postal Inspection Service has been notified.

Respectfully submitted,

Robert E. Bushnell, Esq.
